

OUR TIME • THEIR SPACE

Changing Messages and Modalities to Promote Youth Mental Health

April 24, 2009
London Convention Centre

A one-day event for professionals, parents and young people, showcasing recent initiatives on both prevention and helping teens who have mental health challenges.

Hosted by the Centre for Children and Families in the Justice System

Highlights include:

- ❖ The 2009 Margaret McCain Lecture delivered by Ben Barry, the first male recipient of the Governor General's Award in commemoration of the Persons Case for advancing the equality of girls and women in Canada
- ❖ Keynote address delivered by Dr. Jean Clinton on The Adolescent Brain: Under Construction
- ❖ Reflections on youth mental health diversion on the first anniversary of the Mental Health Court in London
- ❖ Public premiere of "Lifelines" forum theatre interactive production about youth suicide

Conference description and registration package is attached or use on-line registration through our web site: www.lfcc.on.ca